Legend of the phoenix game partner momentum

•Momentum is calculated using esasial, total potential and government attribute for your partners. •Use potential elements for fruit, academy training and growth to increase potential and thereby increase momentum. •You can buy potential fruit, fruit ulcers and growth items in Union Hall quite cheaply, so participate and host banquets. •Level up your partners, especially government specialists. •Promote your partners, this increases all attributes incl. You can buy servant outfits in Shouangong with points from the Battle of Wits and Razor's Edge. •Read books about authority and the blue random. •Date your Confidant and raise their Bond points in authority. Use Energy pills. Also promote them for attribute increases. •Promote and marry your children, you get bonus attribute points. •Make rare animal hunts for growth potions. You can also check your total Momentum in the hunts (it's listed in the bottom right corner). •Remember partners reset overnight so go up against your arch-rivals before logging off for the night even if you're missing points. •If you're really impatient you can buy a War Token from the store to revive a partner. good luck! They are also important in various mini-games, such as the archival battles at the end of each Story chapter. Partners can be purchased through completing certain chapters in history, upgrading VIP, events, achievements and the Recruit Partner feature (where you can get the four dukes or four princes). Currently, there are 38 partners in the game. Partners are available from the Home screen by tapping the partner currently selected as Companion. By default, partners are sorted by level. They can also be sorted by total potential, total attribute score (noted as state in sort button), and momentum (noted as power in sort button). Partners that have not yet been obtained are listed as understated portraits and can be tapped to find out how they get them. Level Partners starts at level 1 and can be upgraded using EXP. Upgrade partners improve attributes and progress. At certain levels, you need to use special items to promote your partner - for example, when a partner reaches level 100, you need a Server Hat, Rob and Belt to promote them to server ranking, and then you can continue to upgrade them to level 150. The color of the partner portraits indicates the current campaign level. On the partner screen, this is noted with a short sentence next to the level, such as Bond: Palace Confidant. These sentences can be found under the portrait of each You can also see which partners a confidant is associated with by accessing the confidential screen and tapping the bond. The bond allows confidants to increase the attribute scores of partners through their bond skills. Potential determines a partner's ability in the four different attributes. The potential consists of a base score and a breakthrough score. The base potential can be improved using potential fruit, which adds 1 to a random attribute potential. Breakthrough potential is enhanced by using growth points, at increasing costs. Growth points can be achieved through the following: Attributes Main Article: Attributes (Partners) Partners have individual attribute scores, all of which contribute to the player's attribute score and total power. A partner's Total ATTR score (Wis + Pol + Cha + Aut) also determines their HP in debates. The individual attribute results increase when the partner is upgraded and when the corresponding potential is improved. They can also be raised using books, and through tape skills to associated confidants. A complete overview of a partner's attributes (as well as momentum) can be found by tapping the exclamation mark next to the Total ATTR score. Skills and specialization Most partners are specialized in one or two attributes - the attribute or attributes that appear at the top of the partner screen. Each attribute is associated with a skill, which is used in debates. Other than skills, a partner's specialization also affects which books they can study effectively in the Academy. Specializations do not affect partner attributes. Attributed to Skill Wisdom Schemer Politics Politician Charisma Charmer Authority Warrior When skills are activated in debates, they increase the amount of damage done to the opponent. Upgrade skills increase the increase in damage. Skills are upgraded using skill points, and how much they improve with each level depends on the specialization of the partner, as represented by the number of stars displayed by each skill, and of the Roman number (I-IV) displayed next to the name. Partners specializing in a property have a 4-star skill, a 2-star skill and two 1-star skills. Partners with Balanced Specialization have two stars in each skill. Partners with Warrior specialization have three stars in each skill. # stars Initial Bonus Dmg increase per level I 115% +1.5% II 120% +2% III 125% +2.5% IV 130% +3% Improve skills Skill points can be acquired through the following: Momentum Momentum is an important aspect of Partners, as it is used as damage in the following activities: Momentum can be improved by the following actions: Upgrade/Leveling improve the potential (in any way) Raise Authority attribute (in any way) New for the Legend of phoenix game?
